ALIEN

I am an alien I'ma misfit
Misunderstood
Stood my flippers proudly on earth and screeched
I don't speak English
I speak spoken word poetry
My tongue may be twisted
But I'm soft spoken
My Vocabulary is awoken
I got telekinesis and pens for hands
I bend my back straight Use my pens to pull out my staff
And I
Boom
Boom
Clap
On my home planet Thunder strikes Across pink clouds white glitter Drizzling Shimmering in greatness Onto my green scaly Eyes black gooey slimes of waves Bursting into human minds
Your Confusion is just so amusing Admit you like my crown filled with sonnets
Asserting my Dominance
To you my home planet is ominous
But my bars are bottomless Your gonna wanna hear my Stream of consciousness When out come my words dripping from my concrete water fountain of intelligence I'll glow Like a star in my moonlight darkness
When I devour your basic words I'll swish swish savor it up spit back lyrics and odes Sticking my saliva to yours fixing your diction Because what you speak is fiction
When my knowledge opens up your wide human eyes You'll realize I speak the truth through My spoken word poetry
I'm not ashamed my poetry is better than my English My alphabet is not a b c it is metaphors and similes
I am a powerhouse to people's hearts
I start fires in peoples spirits I'm the queen that sparks revelations that need to be listened to I need to be heard and you need to hear me
So Bring me my space ships
E er er
I'm taking over the universe
